Foreword

WE WERE BORN REEKED IN THE ODORS OF DISASTROUS WAR. SECURE AS WE WERE, THE VAPORS OF ITS HORROR AND UGLINESS SETTLED ABOUT US SMOTHERING OUT GAIETY AND JOYOUS LIVING AND FORCING ON US STINGING HEARTS, SMILES THAT NEVER COMPLETELY BROKE FORTH AND THOUGHTS THAT WERE COLD AND GREY. THERE WAS NO TIME FOR PLAY AND PLAY WAS FAR FROM THE MINDS OF EACH OF US. BUT A PEACE HAS COME TO US—A PEACE THAT MAY BE OURS TO HOLD OR THAT MAY BE SWEEPED FROM US. THE IDEA OF PEACE FILLS OUR HEARTS AND MINDS AND THE DESIRE FOR IT BURNS IN US. WE YEARN FOR WORLD PEACE, PEACE FOR OUR OWN COUNTRY, FOR OUR HOMES, FOR OUR HEARTS. IT IS THE YOUTH WHO NEVER AGITATED WAR WHO MUST ACCEPT THE CONSEQUENCES. IF THERE IS ANOTHER WAR, IT WILL BE OF OUR OWN MAKING. THAT WE MUST STRIVE AGAINST. OUR BEAUTIFUL, NEW, UNPREDICTABLE PEACE MUST BE COAXED TO MAKE IT SUCH A PART OF US, SO IMBEDDED IN OUR LIVES, THAT IT WILL PROVIDE A HERITAGE FOR OUR DESCENDANTS THAT NO FORCE CAN BREAK AWAY. IT IS THIS SPIRIT OF PEACE THAT BELONGS TO US AND TO ANDERSON COLLEGE THAT WE OF THE COLUMNS HAVE TRIED TO CATCH IN THE PAGES THAT FOLLOW.

Miss Kathryn Copelana

DR. ANNIE DOVE DENMARK

During our two years here, we have learned to love Anderson College. It is impossible to love the College without loving Dr. Denmark who has been the powerful influence in its successful development. She is a personality who will long be remembered as a guide and a friend to the hundreds of young women who have made this their temporary home.

Faculty

The faculty is made up of those persons to whom we can turn for advice and guidance in our academic work and extra-curricular activities. In them we have found helpers whose foresight we can admire and whose decision we can respect. We, through daily association, have found much reason for great pride in our faculty.

The Sophomore Class

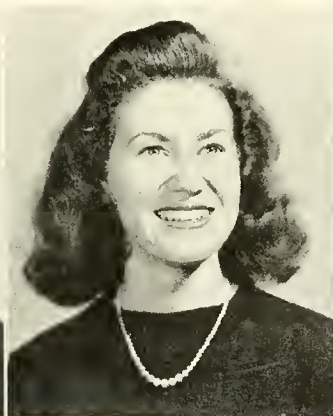

We have been together for two wonderful, gay, sometimes sad, and surprise-filled years. As we look back we wonder how two years could pass so quickly and yet have so much crowded into them.

The first time roommates met . . . trying to find your ways around . . . those strictly formal receptions with Dr. Denmark as the lovely and gracious hostess . . . saying good-bye at Christmas vacations . . . all the little things you could find to tell each other . . . covered transoms during exam week . . . the Yodler scoops . . . singing Happy Birthday in the dining room . . . Sophomore Class meetings . . . songs echoing in the halls . . . "You Got To Accentuate the Positive" . . . "How Little We Know" . . . "Hong Kong Blues" . . . bull sessions from midnight on . . . Miss Cronkhite presenting her students in recitals . . . long walks in the afternoons . . . humiliation when the Freshmen won the hockey games . . . the Cake Walks at the Halloween Carnivals . . . getting the COLUMNS to press . . . May Day in all its splendor . . . Sophomore activities under Miss Harrison's watchful eye . . . Class Day . . . Commencement with tearful farewells . . .

These are the things that are imprinted in our hearts by the magic hand of good fellowship and love. These are the things that will live with us forever.

Union Council

The Baptist Student

The Baptist Student Union of Anderson College serves as a strong link between the church and the college students. It offers an attractive, challenging, organized program for the student life. Among its activities are daily morning watch, interesting chapel programs, monthly Y. W. A. meetings, and sunshine sister week, all of which provides wholesome entertainment for the students. At state and south-wide conferences there is an opportunity of meeting students from other campuses.

CollegiAnnes

The students who are bound by the Honor System at Anderson College are called CollegiAnnes; they have greater responsibilities than the students under Student Government regulations only, and also additional prerogatives. CollegiAnnes at their induction sign a pledge of self-government, and keep the signed card upon their doors as a constant reminder of their responsibilities. Each CollegiAnne is bound by honor not only to keep the college regulations herself, but also to maintain the college standards at a high ethical level.

The highest achievement for an Anderson College student who is enrolled in a liberal arts course is to receive a bid from the Beta Pi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa.

Phi Theta Kappa is a national honor scholarship society corresponding to Phi Beta Kappa for four-year colleges. To be eligible a student must be within the scholastic upper ten per cent. of the students enrolled in the collegiate department.

The aim of Phi Theta Kappa is to promote scholarship, develop character, and cultivate fellowship among the students. In carrying out the aim of the organization the members participate in chapel and radio programs and in social events such as banquets and theater parties.

After the years of war and now the peace that is being organized by the leaders of the different countries, the I. R. C. is being provided with dynamic opportunities for constructive studies and programs.

The Club is provided with books on international relations by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. These books are available to all students of the college.

Delta Psi Omega

In January of this year Anderson College was granted a charter by the Grand Cast of Delta Psi Omega, a national honorary dramatic fraternity. This is one of the largest fraternities of its kind in existence. The aims of Delta Psi Omega are encouraging dramatic talent and cultivating a taste for the best in drama.

To wear the pin of Delta Psi is the highest honor available in the dramatic activities of the college. The installation service, a banquet and sponsoring of "Ladies in Retirement", a mid-season production, were the highlights of the cast's activities.

Good sportsmanship and a love for play are the keynotes for this organization. The W. A. A. is the center of much of the activity on the college campus. Its recreational calendar includes the Halloween Carnival, game tournaments, supper hikes, parties, acrobatic exhibitions and May Day. Students are rewarded by the W. A. A. for exceptional participation in athletics by the presentation of letters. There's always fun to be had in the gym, on the athletic field or anywhere there are competitive sports and the W. A. A.

Association

All of us

Hold that pose!

Take it easy!

HOCKEY

It can be fun. A field hospital, good shin guards, and an opponent who knows golf from hockey is suggested. Freshman and sophomore competition in this field was keen. The Freshmen it seems outplayed the Sophomores.

Black and blue shins . . .

Pass it to the wing . . .

Everybody's favorite? . . .

BASKETBALL

This is the winter favorite. Everyone looks forward to the basketball season at Anderson College. Although no outside games were scheduled this year, school spirit was high and competition tough.

Spectacular shots

Baggy gym suits . . . Worn out tennis shoes

SOFTBALL

Who's bat?

You're out . . .

Is she safe or is she out is often the question? If you don't want to be unpopular you'd better keep in practice and not be the unfortunate creature who makes the last out that puts the team in the field.

VOLLEYBALL

Although the net often makes our hits detour and the opponent gains a point, or the serve goes out of bounds; volleyball is still ranked tops with the students. It calls for quick thinking and coordination.

Huge confusion! . . .

Good bouncer . . .

PING-PONG

The ping-pong table is always in demand because anyone can play and enjoy it. It requires little physical exertion. Come on, let's play a game.

TENNIS

When spring comes you find the Anderson College girls around the tennis courts. Tennis is one of the campus favorites, and most all students are seen playing or trying to play at one time.

Smashing drive?

Race you to the filly

RIDING

Saturday afternoon is a great day in the life of this sport. A lump of sugar for the "horsie", a stay on or bust attitude and the girls are off for a canter through the beautiful Anderson countryside.
